MSCA Guidelines on the inclusion of researchers at risk

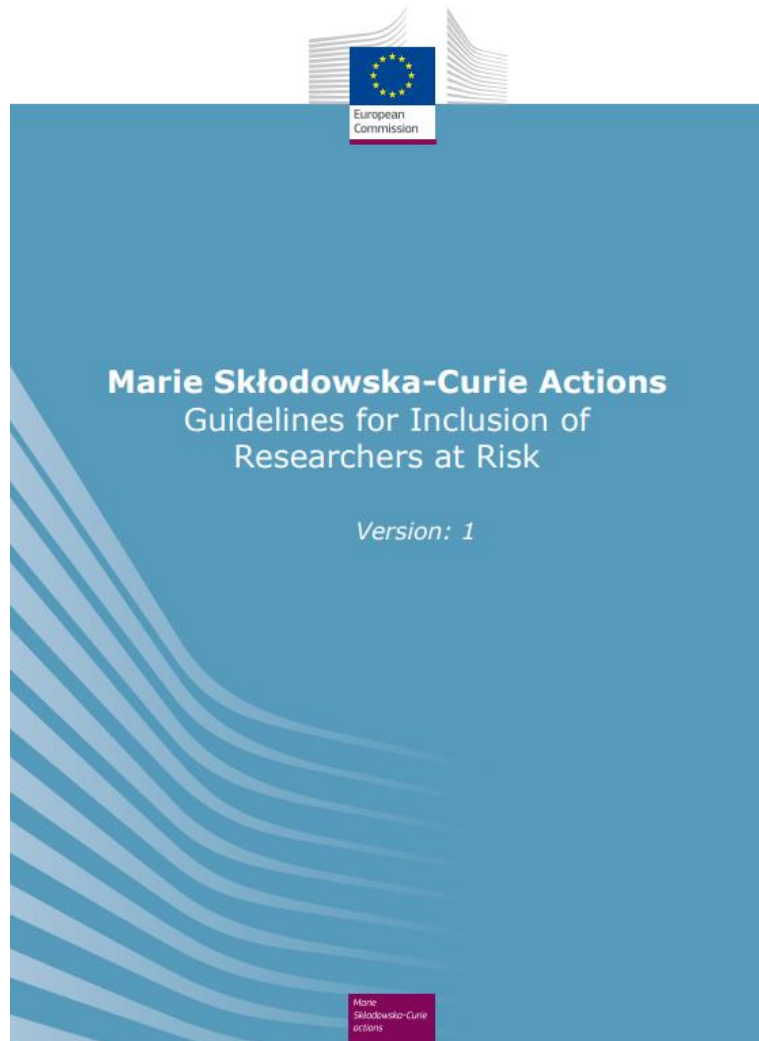

Marie Skłodowska-Curie Actions
Guidelines for Inclusion of
Researchers at Risk

Version: 1

- The guidelines have been developed by the European Commission with the help of the Inspireurope project

- To widen access for researchers at risk, MSCA applicants and beneficiaries are encouraged to consider these guidelines on a best-effort basis.

- Most of the recommendations go beyond the MSCA, and may well be implemented by the higher education community more generally.
