

The 2022 EUA Learning and Teaching Thematic Peer Groups

Overarching theme: Digitally enhanced learning and teaching

Digitally competent teachers in designing quality learning environments

Chair: Université libre de Bruxelles, Belgium

Central European University, Austria

University of Turin, Italy

Vytautas Magnus University, Lithuania

Lusofona University, Portugal

Ovidius University of Constanta, Romania

Open University of Catalonia (UOC), Spain

Lund University, Sweden

HES-SO University of Applied Sciences and Arts Western Switzerland, Switzerland

Izmir University of Economics, Turkey

University of Nottingham, United Kingdom

Coordinator: Thérèse Zhang (EUA)

Collaborative teaching practice

Chair: University of Limerick, Ireland

Tampere University, Finland

Duale Hochschule Baden-Württemberg, Germany

University of Freiburg, Germany

University of Patras, Greece

Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary

University of Trento, Italy

University of Porto, Portugal

National Research University Higher School of Economics, Russia

Universitat de Barcelona, Spain

University of Lausanne, Switzerland

University of Aberdeen, Scotland, United Kingdom

Coordinator: Alison Morrisroe (EUA)

Needs and wellbeing of students and staff

Chair: University of St Andrews, Scotland, United Kingdom

University of Continuing Education Krems (Danube University Krems), Austria

Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University, Georgia

Bielefeld University, Germany

Democritus University of Thrace, Greece

University of Modena and Reggio Emilia (UNIMORE), Italy

Bern University of Applied Sciences, Switzerland

Cardiff University, United Kingdom

Coordinators: Helene Peterbauer (EUA) and Pieta Sikström (University of Jyväskylä, Finland)